LCMGA Reminders

Greetings Lee County Master Gardener Friends.

The 4H History Seekers are still selling tickets to their "Back in Time" Historical Holiday Celebration benefit for The Lee County Historical Society on December 9.

Plans are in their final stages to provide for our guests a fun evening of educational holiday entertainment. We are hoping to reach our 100 participant goal. Please consider joining us, and inviting others you know to do the same.

From: Clara Ragan, Elizabeth and Emmalee Jordan (and Master Gardener, 4H "History Seeker" Parent Advisor Betsy Jordan)

[See details in Save the Date section below.]

2018 Active Members and Friends dues are being collected now. They can be mailed to the Extension Office or bring them to the December 6th monthly meeting. Dues are $20 and the form is attached. If you have any questions contact Anne Morgan, morfamanne@gmail.com

Master Gardeners may order the textbook used in the current Master Gardener course for $40.00. Contact: Lee County Extension Office, 334-749-3353

Volunteer Opportunities

Caroline Dean Wildflower Trail Regular workdays: 2nd and 4th Tuesdays - 8 to 10 am

Next workday: Tuesday, December 12 – Mulch day: Steve Carter is bringing his tractor to help us complete the mulching of the paths in the Caroline Dean Wildflower Trail garden area. We plan to start at 9 AM due to the colder weather and hope to finish by 11. Please remember those gloves and garden rakes.

If raining, we will reschedule.

The mulch work day will be the only work opportunity in December- no 4th Tuesday.

Community Announcements

We have another special opportunity, a graduate student is leaving Auburn to go overseas and has several large, unique house plants to give away:

Passion fruits (P. edulis var. flavicarpa) from Puerto Rico, avocado tree (Persea americana cultivar Hass), pineapple tree (Ananas comosus), Phalaenopsis (I am not sure of the species), geranium (Pelargonium peltatum), lemon tree (Citrus limon), orange tree (Citrus sinensis), bay tree (Laurus nobilis), a rose (I think it is a Double Pink KnockOut Rose but I am not sure), and a poinsettia (Euphorbia pulcherrima) that is starting to become a bonsai.

She lives on Deer Run and will be leaving in two weeks. You need a truck to pick them up, Let Nancy know if you are interested and she will give you the details. 334-728-5064

Everyone is invited to the Farm City meetings each second Tues. of the month at 7:30AM at the Lee County Extension Center. The tours that Farm City promotes are very interesting.
